Tell Me More English v10.5.A point-to-point Windows app that lets you learn English at your own pace. Download, and get free games to enjoy today!In the 10 years since April Fool's Day 2000, the Tetris Challenge has grown into the world's largest, longest-running, community-driven game of Tetris. In that time, it has covered the 2.3 million km of the Earth's surface, has been played daily on more than a billion devices around the world, and has kept the single highest-rated game in all mobile categories on the App Store and Google Play. We've even been featured in the Guinness Book of World Records on multiple occasions! Due to the Tetris Challenge's global popularity and its most loyal and active players, we're pulling it from the App Store and Google Play, as well as from the Tetris website. All progress has been saved, so players will be able to continue playing their games on iOS and Android wherever they want. We'll be continuing to host competitions and offer rewards, and the official Tetris page on Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube will remain available. 50 Mich. App. 678 (1973) 213 N.W.2d 845 SIDELL v. COUNTY OF COOK Docket No. 13975. Michigan Court of Appeals. Decided March 22, 1973. 679 Engelman, Goetz & Dilger (by Richard E. Dilger), for plaintiff. Kitch, Suhrheinrich, Smith, Saurbier & Drutchas (by Donald E. Molette), for defendants. Before: J.H. GILLIS, P.J., and V.J. BRENNAN and O'HARA,[] JJ. PER CURIAM. Plaintiff is the administrator of the estate of his daughter, who died of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. He filed suit against the county in which the accident occurred and the county clerk, seeking statutory damages of $10,000 and $1,000 of general damages. The action was instituted under the wrongful death act, MCLA 600.2922; MSA 27A.2922, and the county board of commissioners and county clerk were joined as additional defendants.
