271 So.2d 683 (1972) James B. HANES, Jr., and Employers Insurance of Wausau, Petitioners, v. Louis B. ZIEGLER, Jr., Respondent. No. 41194. Supreme Court of Florida. November 9, 1972. Rehearing Denied January 12, 1973. *684 James C. Rinaman of Rinaman & Papy, Tallahassee, for petitioners. William D. Ausley, Macclenny, for respondent. ADKINS, Justice. The employer and carrier petition for a writ of certiorari to review an interlocutory order of the Circuit Court, Leon County. Respondent Louis B. Ziegler, Jr. was injured in a work-related accident. He received a personal injury protection (PIP) award pursuant to Section 440.13, Florida Statutes (1971). Petitioners, his employer and carrier, declined to pay the remainder of the award under Sections 440.20(5) and 440.13(1), Florida Statutes (1971), as their PIP contract with respondent was not in effect on the date of the injury. Respondent then filed this action seeking to enforce this obligation. Petitioners challenged the lower court's jurisdiction to issue the "Order of Summary Judgment, Promulgation of Rule and Demand for Jury Trial on Accounting." Petitioners claim that the court lacked jurisdiction to order summary judgment on an unliquidated claim for unliquidated damages. Petitioners assert that the issue before the court was not the amount of attorney's fees but was rather the availability of a jury trial on the issue. At issue in the present case is whether the circuit court had jurisdiction to consider respondent's claim for attorney's fees in an action against an insurance carrier for the nonpayment of PIP benefits pursuant to F.S. Section 440.13. An examination of the complaint reveals that respondent's claim is for recovery of attorney's fees incurred in pursuing his claim against petitioners. At the hearing on the motion for summary judgment, the court below concluded that F.S. Sections 440.20(5) and 440.13(1) impliedly authorized it to hear the matter. In reaching its conclusion, the circuit court applied the rationale that attorney's fees in the area of PIP benefits should be treated similarly to attorney's fees in the area of workmen's compensation benefits.

What's New in the Adobe Photoshop 2022 (Version 23.4.1)?

History of the Detroit Lions The Detroit Lions (formerly the Detroit Tigers) are a professional American football franchise currently playing in the National Football League (NFL). The franchise began play in as an expansion team in the NFL and as the Detroit Falcons, members of the American Professional Football Association (APFA). The team moved to Detroit and became the Tigers in 1934 and was renamed the Lions in 1945. The Detroit Lions were members of the NFL's Central Division from 1929 to 1968, when they moved to the American Football League (AFL). In 1969, they were a charter member of the new AFL, which the Lions would play in for the next seven years. The Detroit Lions played in three Grey Cup championships, winning in 1957 (its first title), 1963 (its second), and 1965 (its third). They also won two NFL Championships, in 1957 and 1961. History of the Detroit Lions American Professional Football Association The Detroit Tigers of the American Professional Football Association (then called the APFA) began play in 1924. The Tigers were owned by Charles A. Baird and Alva F. Johnston. First year head coach, Walter Eckersall, was charged with coordinating the team in 1925, and the team finished with a record of 2 wins and 4 losses. A more successful season was enjoyed by the team in 1926, when they finished with a record of 4 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. Henry J. Taylor and George Swanson were credited with the triumphs of 1926. A new era of baseball ownership opened up in 1927 when GM Frank Navin purchased the Tigers. At this time, the team was named the Pontiac Tigers for the Motor City's first auto manufacturer. Fans and the press nicknamed the team the Whalers, after the Baltimore hotel they had played in during their road trips to the East. 1926 was the last year of the APFA. The league folded after the 1928 season. The team then joined the NFL in 1929 as the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers made the playoffs in 1934, 1935, 1937, and 1940, and won the NFL championship in 1943. American League The Detroit Lions joined the American League in 1940 as part of a reorganization of the National Football League. They played their first season (1940) in Wrigley Field and their first game in Detroit in 1941. They played their home games at Briggs Stadium in Detroit until 1954 and at Ford Field in Detroit from 1955 to 1997.
