When I start this "Also to accept" or "not only to accept"? I was having a discussion with another person about whether we should write both nodes in a tree are important or a node in a tree is important This is just for getting a basic idea of the subjects we are discussing. He argued that this case the former was correct as

Disclaimer: All of these sites are not my creation.Q: Why am I getting extra duplicates on my Select Query? So I have an issue with getting duplicates. I have a query which will search through a database and give me the value 1 or 0 based on the results. So currently what my query does is it looks through the database and will find the actual answer and say for example: If the value of a column is 0, then this column is not displayed. If the value of a column is 1, then this column is shown. What I'm trying to do is limit the amount of duplicates and have this row be the only one. So here are my results Here is what I
