Xero is proud to be the conference's support partner. Xero's Principal Solution Architect, John Golding, will be participating in the event, which is taking place on the 14th of November 2019. During the conference, Xero will be showcasing the latest innovations and upgrades to Xero, including its new Mobile app for accounting and biller organisations. John will also be offering a preview of upcoming releases for Xero users which include more than 150 improvements designed to help you save time, save costs and improve your bookkeeping, invoicing, payment collection and reconciliation. Additionally, John will provide insight into some of the latest business developments and innovations in the accounting and bookkeeping space - including the release of the new Xero Golden Years retirement solution, the 2018 Xero User Conference, as well as the wider trends and shifts happening in the accounting and bookkeeping space across the globe. Xero is committed to supporting the accounting community and we're excited to be showcasing solutions and resources which can help your business run more efficiently and effectively. We encourage all Xero clients to attend the conference to hear what Xero has to offer and to network with fellow Xero users. To find out more about Xero, visit xero.com or connect with us on LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook. See you at Xero 2019 in November!
