Starfinder Roleplaying Game: Alien Archive (SFRPG) is a 100-page supplement designed for use with the Starfinder Roleplaying Game. This book contains information on a number of fascinating alien races featured in the Starfinder Roleplaying Game, along with new races, new technology, new combat tactics, and new areas to explore.

Fantasy Grounds - Starfinder RPG - Alien Archive (SFRPG): Fantasy Grounds is a freeware application that provides both a Virtual Tabletop (VTT) and a Role Playing Game (RPG) module authoring environment. The VTT feature allows a number of tools to be created to further support the task of designing games, including a tool that can help to create tokens for use in the game, a tool for creating map templates to ease map design, a tool for managing NPC creation and several useful simulation tools. The RPG module authoring feature was designed to make it easy to write and manage games for the Starfinder Roleplaying Game. It supports the use of all elements of the Starfinder Roleplaying Game system, including the system's advice system.

Fantasy Grounds A free Open Source application, Fantasy Grounds is available for download from Both the studio and the campaign features are supported with open source code.

Fantasy Grounds Studio Use the Fantasy Grounds Studio to design your Virtual Tabletop (VTT) and to write your role playing games. The VTT is created in the Director interface, while the RPG module is created in the Campaign Interface.

Fantasy Grounds Campaign This free Open Source application is designed to make it easy to write and manage your Starfinder Roleplaying Game adventures. The Campaign Interface allows you to create characters, play characters, manage encounters, explore maps, create treasure parcels and create entire campaigns with many advanced features. Fantasy Grounds Designer An enhanced version of the module editor for the Fantasy Grounds VTT, the Designer allows you to create rules, write rules and use a toolset to edit maps, tokens and adventures. Q: How to handle a threat from an ex-lover? I know in a way the reason why I wasn't able to succeed in my romantic relationship was because I wasn't able to adjust to his "survival need" to always have a relationship going on. Because of that my relationship went through many issues, which he even claimed was my fault. Due to that he
