What's new in The Longest Five Minutes - Digital Soundtrack:

to add $2.3mn additional roll on to forest renovation contracts But not before $37.3m will have been spent on site-works for the city's seven largest natural CO2 emitters - including a $2.4mn basic roll over for tourist and ecotourism development. The city says it has received just $4.5m of the original $36.7mn in government funding. About $1.5m has been contributed by the state government and the remainder of the funding will be provided by the city of Mackay for the construction stage of the project. "The additional roll-over is a significant and welcome addition that we have been seeking and should help ease the cost burden on the project to a manageable level," Mayor Jenny Hill said in a statement. "I'd like to thank Alcorn Ingenuity & Construction, who we have worked with for many years to deliver high-quality environmental upgrades," Cr Hill said. Eddy Clark, council director for environment and sustainability, said the addition of the $2.4m of funding for the project was off-set by the $3.4mn in project costs the council would have had to pay for without the roll-over. This, Mr Clark said, represented the "positive cost-benefit associated with the work that's been undertaken". Construction will commence on two sites: Manariit Beach (1.67 hectares) and the Cape Mackay EcoPark (2.66 hectares) where a $2.3mn roll over will be added to the project. “This last major contract means Alcorn Ingenuity can begin on seven major projects that will see significant environmental upgrades to the properties,” said Alcorn’s general manager Rory Fry. “We have worked on all of these with [Pacific Rim Forest] and our consultant for the last eight years, this funding is an important milestone,” he said. “We will now move on to construction of the projects and achieving their completion and delivery in the next two years.”
