If this step doesn't work, then you'll have to follow the guide below:..Before I get to the point, I have to say how surprised I am that the new album came out on July 4th. I don't know any of the musicians so I have no idea how or why this came to be. I suppose something must have happened to make this special date so significant. Maybe the record company pressured the musicians to make the release date coincide with a national holiday? I can't really judge the music on this album so I'll just say what it sounds like, which is good if you are looking for something that will shake up your opinion of Cd box sets. So first thing first, a recap of some recent releases. The Phoenix issued a compilation of their records called The Phoenix Remastered. This is a collection of songs from their first release In the Court of the Crimson Queen to an audio version of Mask of Zarathos. Lots of good stuff. I listened to the song 'Blind Obedience of the Heart' to see what the fuss was about. It's a gloomy number with the two singers sittin
